VOL. 5.

SEQUACHEE, TENN., THURSDAY, DEC. 2, 1897.

NO. 22

Announcements.

We are authorized to announce G. W. Brewer as candidate for nomination for the office of Register of Deeds for Marion County.

LOCAL.

Mr. Wm. Owen killed hogs Monday.

The melancholy days have come—for some of the hogs.

Mr. Sherman spent Thanksgiving day in South Pittsburg.

Henry Kent has finished Mr. Penley's addition to his house.

The Toledo Weekly Blade and the News, $1 per year, cash in advance.

Mr. M. Martin, of Cedar Springs, and his son James were in town Sunday.

Newton Fuhs has been lately afflicted with troublesome boils on his neck.

Just try a 10c. box of Cascarets, the finest liver and bowel regulator ever made.

Geo. W. Brewer, of Jasper, delivered a good load of meat in town, Saturday.

Blank Deeds, Mortgage Deeds and Chattel Mortgage Deeds for sale at this office.

Miss Laura Turner and Mr. Bobo, of Tullahoma, were married Sunday at Victoria.

Mr. A. L. Pitts, Clerk & Master of Chancery Court, Jasper, was in town Friday.

W. S. Pryor's school attendance continues quite satisfactory. He has now 80 pupils enrolled.

Chris Wagner, having got his wheat all planted, now gives his attention to gathering corn.

C. H. Davidson has been making preparation to keep his sweet potatoes for seed next spring.

Miss Nettie Rogers, of Jasper, was visiting her sister, Miss Myrtle Rogers, Saturday and Sunday.

Do not forget we furnish good envelopes printed with address for return for 35c per single hundred.

Mr. and Mrs. John Kilgore are happy in the advent of a new baby at their house, a girl, born last week.

The "Outcast of a Great City" is the title of a drama to be presented at South Pittsburg Friday and Saturday night.

We regret to hear that Miss Minnie Haynes is afflicted with a felon or rising on her hand which has been very painful.

The News is not only the best, the very best paper in the Valley, all home print, and our office does the best job printing.

Among the visiting attorneys at the circuit court held at Dunlap last week, from this county were Col. A. L. Spears and Judge Pope of Jasper.

Tom Henry left yesterday morning for Indian Territory. He will spend the winter there, and if he likes it may locate there permanently.

Lee Turner has put in 40 acres of wheat and says everyone in his section is putting in wheat, which makes the necessity for a flour mill in Sequachee more urgent.

We are again obliged to our good friend, Mr. J. B. Price, of New Jersey, for the New York Journal, coming on the eve of Thanksgiving with the musical supplement, it helped out our Thanksgiving greatly.

We will allow fifty cents a bushel for good corn to any of our subscribers who want to pay for their paper in that way. Won't some of our delinquents pay up in that way. Deliver the corn at this office.

WE PAY CASH each week to men all over U. S. to sell Stark trees—cheapest, best. Outfit free—takes no money to try the work. All so want CLUB MAKERS—get their trees free. Drop us postal, name reference. Stark Nursery, Louisiana, Mo., or Rockport, Ill.

Mr. Chas. Hancock has moved his family to the Myers place, purchased by him of the New England Investment Co., and will make many improvements on the place. Mr. Hancock is a practical farmer and just the kind of man we want.

Services were conducted at Owen Church on Sunday by Mr. Ourey, of Jasper, who has a harness shop in connection with Havron Bros.' hardware store.

The repairs and additions to the Foundry at the Valve Works are still under way and from the outside makes quite an addition to the plant and the work of casting still goes on.

The News found the Valve Works force busily engaged in casting coolers Thursday last. The present capacity of the foundry is three times as great as it has been, and a very business like appearance is made.

While not like the Statesman called upon to be thankful for having the smallest list of delinquent subscribers in the Valley, we feel sure our readers all pay for our paper because they want it, and only have to be reminded that their subscription is unpaid to promptly attend to the matter, which is what we like.

Rev. Jacob Houts and sons are busy men. They have sown 30 acres of wheat with their Hoosier drill, besides putting in wheat for Mr. Wm. Owen. They used fertilizer freely and believe in it. Now they are building a new barn in place of the one which was burned July 5, and that is not all. Mr. Houts has had some apple trees from the celebrated Stark Bros. Nurseries and is highly pleased with them and says they are just splendid.

MODERN INSCANCES.

The New Villain.
The villain used to lie in wait
To nab some gentle maid,
What time the hero walked into
The trap that had been laid;
But now, the villain merely takes
A piece of pointed wire
And, while the maiden wrings her hands,
He jabs the hero's tire.

Cheese 'Most Too Fur Gone.
The old Virginia darkey who has been from the time he was 10 years of age the dining room servant of one of our aristocratic families is noted for his Chesterfieldian manners. And as for a waiter, cleaner, and everything else for which a house-servant is wanted he is not equalled by his latter-day brethren, whose main occupation, if he has been to school and can read a little, is that of a hotel waiter or a Pullman car porter.

Having some company to tea one night I remembered that two of my friends were fond of Limberger cheese. I bought a pound package and took it home with me. On arrival old Uncle Isaac met me as usual with his accustomed salutation of "Good evenin', boss." I said to him: "Uncle Isaac, you will find among other things in that box a package of cheese, and I want it on the table tonight." "All right, boss, I'll have it." "Don't you forget it," said I. "Oh, no, sah; I ain't goin' fergit it. I'll have it, sho'."

Now, Uncle Isaac had seen every kind of cheese in his life, but this was his first experience with the limberger.

When I took my company into the dining room the old fellow was standing near the table, with a long, white apron on, and a waiter tucked under his arm, ready to jump if anyone looked toward him. Not seeing the cheese I said to him quietly: "Uncle Isaac, where's the cheese?" With a look of great disappointment, he turned to my wife, as if to say, "Please, marm, come to my rescue!" but my wife only smiled. I repeated my question then with more emphasis: "Uncle Isaac, where's the cheese?" He came shuffling up to me sideways, and being too polite to let the guests hear what he had to say, whispered softly in my ear, "Boss, it was mos' too fur gone, an' I flung it away."—Washington Post.

Inman.
Inman, Nov. 30.—M. H. Gammon, who has been visiting relatives at Johnson City, has returned to Inman.

W. R. Foster, who has been sick for several days is able to resume his duties again as Steward of the prison at this place.

Dr. Taylor was on the sick list but is now convalescent.

Dr. K. Shelton passed through town the other day with his bride.

Jao Dickson, of Ridgedale, was on our streets to-day.

Mr. J. S. Kilgore and two of his children has been sick but are improving at this writing.

Rev. Ashley was in town to-day.

It is rumored that Lynus F. Dixon is intending to move to Inman. We doubt whether he can leave the Ridges or not as he is very bashful.

Several of our farmers killed hogs during the past week.
